DPL EVENTS MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 23 – SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28

[Duluth, MN] -- All Duluth Public Library events are free and open to the public.

Monday, September 23 at Mt. Royal Branch Library – 105 Mt. Royal Shopping Circle

Read to a Dog – 3:30 – 4:30 pm: Kids are invited to read a story to a good listener with big ears! These one-on-one read-aloud sessions with a licensed therapy dog are a great way to practice reading in a comfortable, low-stress environment. Drop-in sessions available on a first come first served basis. Games and activities available while you wait.

Effective Communication Strategies – 6:00 – 7:30 pm: A local expert from the Alzheimer's Association will explain methods for communicating with those living with dementia. Discussion and time for questions will follow the program.

Monday, September 23 at Main Library – 520 West Superior Street

Autumn Landscape Painting with 321 Art Studio – 1:00– 2:30 pm: Adults and older teens of all art skill levels will enjoy drawing and painting with 321 Art Studio teaching artist, Amy Lucas-Peroceski. Participants will create their own autumn landscape painting by drawing their landscapes on an 11" x 14" canvas with the instructor and then painting their landscapes with water-mixable oil paints. Fun for those with no painting experience or those with experience painting -- a great chance to try water-mixable oil paints. All supplies will be provided for participants to complete a landscape painting on canvas. Register online at <http://www.duluthlibrary.org>.
