One Book Northland Presents

Gichigami Hearts: Stories and Histories from Misaabekong

by Linda LeGarde Grover

DULUTH, MN - 2022 marks the 21st year the One Book project has brought Northland communities together to celebrate reading. The One Book Northland committee is pleased to announce the selected title is Gichigami Hearts: Stories and Histories from Misaabekong by local author Linda LeGarde Grover.

Linda LeGarde Grover weaves her magic again in Gichigami Hearts blending history in the many different ways we tell stories. The relationship you form with this land and its Ojibwe people will only deepen after you have breathed in this amazing work.

In 2022, the Duluth Public Library, along with the Cloquet Public Library, Superior Public Library, Two Harbors Public Library, Barnes &Noble, Bookstore at Fitger's, UMD Kathryn A. Martin Library, Zenith Bookstore, and many other amazing businesses around the area will host events during the month of April. These events will be unique and deepen our understanding and connection to Gichigami Hearts.

Look for a complete program guide this spring at any of these locations: Duluth Public Library, Cloquet Public Library, Superior Public Library, Two Harbors Public Library, UMD Kathryn A. Martin Library, Bookstore at Fitger's, Barnes &Noble, and Zenith Bookstore.

The One Book Northland committee includes representatives from the community, Duluth Public Library, Cloquet Public Library, Superior Public Library, Two Harbors Public Library, University of Minnesota Duluth, the College of St. Scholastica, Superior Save the Kids, Barnes &Noble, Bookstore at Fitger's, and Zenith Bookstore.
