Duluth Parks and Recreation announces the 40th Annual Chester Creek Concert Series

[DULUTH, MN] Duluth Parks and Recreation, along with partners at Chester Bowl, announce the lineup of the 40th Annual Chester Creek Concert Series. Concerts take place Tuesday nights throughout the summer at Chester Park, 1801 East Skyline Parkway. This free, family-friendly concert series features a variety of music throughout the summer that will surely get everyone's toes tapping! Duluth Parks and Recreation would like to thank all of the bands who submitted applications to this year's concert series. Duluth is fortunate to have such a richly talented and diverse music community.

Concerts begin at 7 pm in June and July, and at 6:30 pm in August. All concerts are 90 minutes in duration, and there will be no Chester Creek concert on July 4. More information on the concert series can be found on our social media pages @DuluthParksMN or on our website: <https://duluthmn.gov/parks/programs-events/special-events/>
