SUBJECT: Duluth Police are Seeking the Public's Help Identifying Theft Suspect

BY: DPD Public Information Officer Jim Hansen (218) 390-2232

On Tuesday, January 15th, 2013 at 8:27 PM Duluth Police were called to investigate a vehicle prowl that occurred in a parking lot in the 2200 block of West Superior Street. A purse was stolen from the vehicle. Shortly after the credit cards that were in the stolen purse were used at four stores in the Miller Hill Mall as well as at two local gas stations. A felony level amount of purchases were made with the stolen credit cards.

An image of the male suspect was captured by a surveillance camera at the Miller Hill Mall. Also, a surveillance camera at a local gas station captured the image of the suspect's vehicle, which is described as a dark, four-door Oldsmobile.

Anyone with any information about this incident is asked to contact Duluth Police Department Property Crimes Officer Jen Mangan at (218) 730-5444.
