[DULUTH, MN] The Duluth Police department continues to investigate the disappearance of 21 year old Jacob Lavoie who was last seen leaving Grandmas Sports Garden at approximately 12:08 AM on September 1st 2019 walking in a northerly direction towards downtown. While the Police department has conducted organized searches with the assistance of the St. Louis County Rescue Squad and Duluth Fire department, they are not in need of volunteers at this time. Citizens and business owners who own properties within the outlined area however, can assist in checking locations around their own immediate properties for Jacob. In checking your properties, consider abandoned buildings, vehicles, stairwells, outbuildings, dumpsters, boats, or anywhere a person could hide. In addition to searching your property please also review security systems from the period of 00:00-06:00 on 09/01/2019 for a person matching Jacob's description. If you find something suspicious or know of Jacob's whereabouts, please report it to 911 or call 218-730-5560.
