Superior Street Reconstruction Celebration to also Highlight Downtown Businesses

[Duluth, MN] - The community is invited to celebrate the reopening of the western blocks of Superior Street in downtown Duluth on Tuesday, October 30 at 10 AM. The celebration will take place at 4th Ave West and Superior Street. Mayor Larson, business leaders and community members will be present for the official unveiling of this transformative project.

The community is also invited to visit the following downtown businesses that are hosting open houses on October 30 between 11 am and 4:30 pm. Stop by after the celebration to learn more about what these business partners offer in products, services or specials and thank them for choosing to be in downtown. Specific activities/events for each location are listed below.
